Old Scottish Rite Cathedral Changes Hands.

BOUGHT BY BAPTISTS

Pay Down One Hundred Dollars Forfeit Money.

Yesterday the old Scottish Rite cathed ral at the corner of First and Market atreets was sold to the Buptist church for $4,000. A $100 forfelt money was paid down to hold the deal and the church people will at once proceed to raise the money for purchase price.

It has been only five or six years since this building was taken from the Baptist organization under mortgage incurred some time during the boom. The debt was made by the church in order to secure some other property and when the mortgage became due some years after the boom had collapsed the members experiencing the general depression of the country were unable to pay off the obligation and the property went to The Masons secured control and used the building for the lodge meetings for several years until the bodies have outgrown the accommodations. They then secured the Y. M. C. A. building as a permanent home and are having it remodeled. They had no use for the old building and a very reasonable rate was made to the Baptists, whose membership and material prosperity have increased so that the organization feels warranted in making a perchase of their old

It will be put in order and ready for services again as soon as the Masons get ner of Tepeka and First.

AFTER GRAIN SHIPPERS Two Men Arrested For Violating the Inter-Commerce Law.

J. M. Rearick, of Purcell, I. T., was brought to this city Friday night, by Deputy United States Marshal Hubbard, of the Purcell district, and lodged in fall on the charge of violating the inter-state commerce laws. Rearish was arrested on the same charge as that preferred against D. O. Wilson, who was mentioned in the Eagle of Saturday as being in juli here.

Rearch and Wilson were grain shippers at Newkirk, Purcell and other points it Okiahama and the Indian Territory. It is charged that they induced A. S. Brown who was the bill clerk of the Santa Pe road at Arkansas City, to reduce the weight of car-load lots of corn, and thus violated the previsions of the inter-state commerce law. They were indicted at the lust term of the grand fury here.
